

The Spotted Face

Rosettes, slit pupils and whiskers. The forehead markings of a true Bengal.

1. Print at full size and trim along the dashed line.
2. Tape the sheet to a cleaned pumpkin. Trace every edge with a pushpin, dots close together.
3. Carve the smallest pieces first: whiskers, spots and rosettes, then the eyes, nose and ears. Leave the slit of skin through each eye.